Scotland Neck Boy's Success.

A recent issue of the Suffolk Herald special Jamestown Exposition edition made mention of the Suffolk Feed and Fuel Co., of which Mr. G. L. Bell is general manager and secretary. Of Mr. Bell it said: "Mr. Bell is a native of the Old North State, and is one of the brightest young men of the city."

Mr. Bell's many friends in Scotland Neck, his home town, will be glad to note his continued success.

REMEMBER THE KNIFE.—Remember that every one who pays up all subscription arrears and one dollar in advance for THE COMMONWEALTH, gets a knife free. See the description of the knife on the fourth page.

HAY FEVER.—From the many wagons, carts and sometimes buggies that one sees loaded with hay as they go out of Scotland Neck, one might conclude that some of the farmers of this community have the "hay fever."

LIDDELL COMPANY.—On the fourth page may be seen a new advertisement of this well known company in Charlotte. They can supply the wants of the public in their line of machinery and we commend them to our readers who may wish such supplies. In writing to them mention this paper.

MARRIED HALF CENTURY.—Mr. Cannon, a Confederate Veteran who lives in Scotland Neck, a few days ago passed the fiftieth anniversary of his marriage. He is a native of New York, but was living in Warrenton when the war came on and he served through it and has lived the most of his life in the South.

DR. HUFHAM LAST SUNDAY.—Dr. J. D. Hufham who was spending some days here on a visit to his friends, delighted his old congregation in the Baptist church with a sermon last Sunday morning. It is always a delight to the people of Scotland Neck to have Dr. Hufham here, and they hear him gladly every time. He returned to his home in Henderson Monday.

COTTON STILL DYING.—Farmers say that this has been the most unfavorable spring in many years, and it is especially hard on cotton. For several weeks the cotton has been dying and in some places the replanting seems not to have amounted to much. Mr. L. J. Baker, of Palmyra, said a day or so ago that his cotton is still dying and he fears he will have to plow up some cotton and plant peanuts.

Card of Thanks.

To those who have so sweetly manifested their love and sympathy for us in our recent bereavement we would offer our sincere thanks and assurance of deepest appreciation. MRS. HENRY ALLSBROOK.

Miss Frances Hill to Wed.

Invitations have been issued to the marriage of Miss Francis Hill to Dr. John L. Nicholson at Washington, N. C. on June 29th. Miss Hill is well known here and has a number of friends who will be interested in this event.

Mr. Purrrington Elected Vice-President.

News comes from Greensboro this morning that Mr. A. L. Purrrington has been elected vice-president of the State Merchants Association, in session there, for the second congressional district. This honor comes to Mr. Purrrington unsought and in well bestowed.

Road Board Organized.

The magistrates of Scotland Neck township met Monday as a board of supervisors of public roads. They organized by electing Mr. I. H. Smith superintendent of roads for the township, Mr. D. M. Prince chairman of the board and Dr. J. E. Shields secretary.

Piece of Historic Bark.

Mr. James Hyman was exhibiting some days ago a piece of bark from the apple tree near which Gen. Lee surrendered to Gen. Grant at Appomattox. It has been kept all these years by his mother, Mrs. Celia Hyman, whose brother, Mr. Andrew Jones, who lives near Bethel, brought from Appomattox.

Improvements on Twelfth Street.

Just at the edge of town on Twelfth street there are some marked and attractive improvements. They are the handsome new residences being built by Messrs. W. L. Harrell, J. C. Mullen and J. W. Madry. Mr. Madry's house is on the lot which joins Mr. W. P. Darden on the west, Mr. Mullen's is on the lot that joins Mrs. Mary Tillery on the west, and Mr. Harrell's is still further west.

All these new buildings will be handsome when completed. No part of the town has been more improved by new buildings in many years.

The Planters and Commercial Bank.

This new bank for Scotland Neck has been open for business two weeks, and its business has been good from the first.

The building is a handsome one advantageously located on the corner of Main and Eleventh Streets, and the fixtures and furniture are of the latest design, are handsome and conveniently arranged.

Mr. O. J. Moore as cashier, and Mr. J. G. Mills as book-keeper already look at home in their new places, their uniform courtesy to the public pleases all who have business with the new institution.

The Best Place.

To-day the news editor of THE COMMONWEALTH said he wished a quiet hour in which to prepare some copy for the printers: He was told to go to the store of—in town and ask the privilege of a seat in the corner.

"Why should I go there?" he queried. "Because it is quiet there—they do not advertise"—was the reply.

A Pretty Marriage at Hobgood.

The Baptist church at Hobgood was the scene of a pretty marriage last Tuesday afternoon, at 3 o'clock, when Miss Carrie Rena Cox became the bride of Mr. Staton N. Weeks. A large crowd was present to witness the ceremony which was preformed by Rev. Mr. Sumner, of Norfolk.

The church was very tastefully decorated for the occasion and the wedding march was played by Mrs. W. N. Herring.

The bride is the accomplished daughter of Mr. J. S. Cox and has a large circle of friends who wish her much happiness, while the groom is a popular young planter of Edgecombe county and is held in high esteem by all who know him.

The attendants were Miss Mary Summers with Mr. Ernest Weeks, Miss Margie Bradley with Mr. Ernest Ruffin, Miss Nina Corbett with Mr. Ruick Gammons, Miss Annie Lawrence with Mr. Arthur Ruffin.

Ask For Extension of Time.

The A. C. L., Seaboard Air Line and Southern Railway companies have filed with the Corporation Commission a petition, asking that the Commission extend the time for the act of the recent Legislature prescribing eight hours work for telegraph operators, to be effective until March 4, 1908, at which time the national law will be effective, the extension of the time by the Commission to be on condition that in the meantime operators shall be allowed to work more than eight hours, but not in excess of twelve hours. The Corporation Commission has set the petitions for hearing June 21st, at which time both roads will be heard, and it is understood that the Railway Telegraphers' Union will have representatives to oppose it and insist that the State law be put into effect July 1st, as the Legislature provided.

A prompt, pleasant, good remedy for coughs and colds, is Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup. It is especially recommended for babies and children, but good for every member in the family. It contains no opiates and does not constipate. Contains Honey and Tar and tastes nearly as good as maple syrup. Children like it. Sold by E. T. Whitehead & Co.

Paint is to a Building

what clothing is to the body. It is just as important. You should take as much care in selecting the paint to clothe your property as you do in selecting the material to clothe your person. Paint preserves the building. Paint gives beauty to the building. It also adds to the selling or renting value of a building.

THE SHERWIN-WILLIAMS PAINT

is made for painting buildings. It is not a low-priced paint, but it is cheap because the best. It is made of the purest materials—that wear the longest. The colors are bright and handsome.
